Memorandum from W. D. Gow to the Director
Re: Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) regarding [redacted]

b3

DETAILS:

In the aftermath of [redacted] case, the intelligence community, particularly the CIA, came under intense criticism for failure to communicate to the FBI situations involving [redacted]

b3
b7C

[redacted] On 6/7/88, the FBI entered into an MOU with the CIA, signed by the Director, which formally addressed these concerns. A portion of this agreement, Section IV, referred to [redacted]
[redacted]

(S) (u)

The CIA, through our Office of Liaison and International Affairs, requested the Intelligence Division's (INTD's) concurrence on declassification of the document. On review by INTD, it was determined that [redacted] was the only portion of the MOU justifying the classification. It was suggested that [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b3

[redacted] Section IV of the MOU was, therefore, altered by [redacted]
[redacted]

(S) (u)

This recommended change is a positive one for several reasons. The unclassified nature of the MOU will make discussions of its purpose simpler. The newly referenced [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b1
b3

[redacted] initiatives of INTD which would have mandated a revision of this MOU in the near future in any case. (S)

It is, therefore, recommended that the revised MOU be signed by the Director. Attached are copies of the old MOU, [redacted] and the recommended MOU.
